

Dorothy Lawrence

Roleplay Actor

Has worked with:

- BBC
- Price Waterhouse Coopers
- The Inland Revenue
- Aston Martin
- M&S
- Royal Bank of Scotland
- British Aerospace

Background

Dorothy is in her early forties. She has twenty years of acting experience in Theatre, TV, Film, Presenting and Radio and ten years of working as a professional roleplay actor. She trained for three years at Drama Centre, London. In business she has worked as a treasurer for a Charity and has twelve years of experience working in the legal world both for Criminal and Family Law firms.

Expertise

Dorothy has excellent devising and improvisational skills. With regard to roleplay her expertise extends to assessment and development, recruitment, performance management and leadership training; she also has some background in forum theatre. She is happy to work on financial material, having a 'head for figures' and immensely enjoys interfacing with people.

Qualifications & Professional Memberships

- 3 year Acting Diploma from Drama Centre, London
- 2 year ALCM Diploma in Music and Drama
- 3 A Levels – German, French and English
- 10 GCE O Levels
- Proofreading certificate – Chapterhouse

Interests

Dorothy does yoga every day and also enjoys walking, gardening, reading, listening to music, going to the theatre and travelling.