

Louise Wingrove

Trainer / Coach / Learning Strategist / Training Designer

Has worked with:

- National Grid
- GE
- Ask.com
- Scope
- SCA

Background

Louise is training and development professional, with 15 years experience in a corporate environment and two years as an external consultant. She has led Global Learning strategy for multi-national corporations and managed geographically diverse teams. As an external consultant Louise has designed and delivered a range of programmes for international companies in management, presentation skills and customer service. Louise has also worked as a coach with executives across a number of industry sectors and levels. Louise was on the Board of a charity for 2 years, has spoken at conferences and is author of articles about training.

Expertise

- Designing and delivering training in:
- Leadership Development
- Management Development
- Teambuilding
- Communication, including Presentation Skills
- Customer service

Qualifications & Professional Memberships

- 2003 Certified Coaches Training Institute Coach
- 2003 Chartered FCIPD
- 2000 Certified Myers Briggs Administrator
- 1997 Certified NVQ Assessor
- 1995 Greenwich University: P.G.C.E (F.E)
- 1989 Manchester University: BA (Hons) English Literature (2:1)

Interests

Walking. Travel. Reading. Photography. Going to the Cinema. Listening to the Radio. Socialising with friends. Family Life. Music. Interior design. Learning.