

Owen Oldroyd

Roleplay Actor

Has worked with:

- BMW
- United Utilities
- Many Housing Associations

Background

Qualified primary school teacher (P.G.C.E. Oxon 1996) teaching English, Music, Drama at all Key Stage Levels over the last ten years. Retrained as an actor in 1999 and has worked extensively in the theatre both in the West End and on tour nationally and internationally. Productions include Blood Brothers, Hay Fever, Private Lives, A Midsummer Night's Dream and Abigail's Party. Started working as a role-play actor in 2003 and has been working in this area almost full-time since then.

Expertise

Brings an extremely realistic style of acting to the role-play process. Has teaching experience so has a good understanding of how to work with the trainer on bringing out coaching points. Can cover a wide range of roles.

Qualifications & Professional Memberships

Diploma in Acting, Drama Studio London
BA (Hons), Cardiff University
P.G.C.E. Upper Primary, Oxford University
Member of Actor's Equity

Interests

Sport, particularly cricket and golf, chess, teaching, guitar, singing, reading, gardening.