

Tony Walker

Trainer / Coach / Training Designer / Roleplay Actor / Interim Manager

Has worked with:

- Saab Great Britain Ltd
- Marks & Spencer plc
- Masters Group
- Human Resource Development
- Bath Audi
- Park Lane BMW
- The Mind Gym

Background

Tony has held senior management and director level positions with Saab Great Britain and also ran his own successful business for many years. He assisted in the development of team building and customer focus training programmes and also took responsibility for delivering the programme. He is an accomplished coach and prides himself on his ability to inspire increased performance from those he works with.

Expertise

- Identifying training needs within individuals and organisations
- Effective implementation and delivery of relevant solutions
- Post-training follow up and review
- Developing individual and team potential through coaching
- Director-level business management experience
- Staff recruitment and development
- Project management
- Commercial property acquisition and development

Qualifications & Professional Memberships

- Fellow of the Institute of the Motor Industry
- Member of The Institute of Directors
- Saab Institute of Management graduate
- Graduate of Dale Carnegie Effective Communication and LTM programmes
- Certified coach for The Mind Gym[®]

Interests

Flying, walking, the countryside, being involved in the local community and family fun times.